Property Description

This incredible 11th-floor penthouse is perched at the highest point in Fuengirola, offering breathtaking views of the sea and mountains. Whether you're looking for a dream vacation home or a perfect place to live full-time, this property has it all!

The apartment features 2 spacious bedrooms and 2 modern bathrooms, both with underfloor heating for extra comfort. The open-plan kitchen and living area create a bright and welcoming space. The highlight is the expansive terrace, accessible from every room, complete with a private jacuzzi and sauna. A section of the terrace is enclosed with removable glass doors, so you can soak in the amazing views no matter the season. All furnitures included (not paintings).

Renovated in 2017, this home is equipped with a state-of-the-art smart home system. Control everything from awnings and lights to blinds and alarms with just a tap on your phone or a single button to secure the entire apartment before or entering the apartment.

The elevator takes you up to the 10th floor, and from there, a short staircase leads you to the exclusive penthouse on the top floor.

The property has gated access with parking options available. You can park inside the gate or purchase a designated spot in the garage. Residents also enjoy a communal pool and garden, open from May to October perfect for relaxing with family or friends.
